

2008 Citizen of the Year
Sponsored by
The Tillman's Corner Area Chamber of Commerce

How can you recognize an individual that has gone beyond the call of duty for his or her community? How can you recognize an individual that has given 100% and more to his or her community? How can you recognize an individual that exceeds all obstacles and continues to give a helping hand to others?

This is your opportunity to nominate and recognize someone through the Tillman's Corner Area Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year nominations. The individual can be anyone from the Tillman's Corner and Theodore area. They do not have to be a member of the Tillman's Corner Area Chamber of Commerce and does not have to own a business. This individual can be a teacher, banker, secretary, retired, a business associate or even a good neighbor.

Please submit the attached nomination form and an article (250 words or less typed) outlining your nominee's achievements, community involvement and why you feel they should be the Citizen of the Year. The deadline to return your nomination form and article is Friday, October 24, 2008. You must be present to read your article and to make your presentation of your nominee at the November 3, 2008 Chamber meeting. After all nominations have been presented, the Citizen of the Year committee will review and select the Citizen of the Year. A banquet in their honor will be held in February 2009 at the Community Center, which will include awards and dinner (details to follow).

Nomination form and article must be received by Friday, October 24, 2008 to:

Tillman's Corner Area Chamber of Commerce
Attn: Larry Kent
5055 Carol Plantation Road
Mobile, AL 36619

For additional information contact Larry Kent 666-2488 or Fax 666-2813.
